

I think interpreters should not call back if the VRS line busy. I havent seen any operators call back to hearing people on telephone. we are function equal to hearing people. I dont think it is good idea for vrs to call back